

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS

Over 45 Years of Leadership & Responsibility

2017

“To empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe...”

ABOVE: NCSEJ and Jewish community leaders meet with the Minister of Foreign Affairs in Astana, Kazakhstan, November 2017.

RIGHT: NCSEJ Chairman Daniel Rubin (right) presents Deputy Foreign Minister Marek Magierowski with a tzedakah box in Warsaw, Poland, October 2017.

NCSEJ works in more than 20 countries with governments, NGOs, and local communities to empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe. NCSEJ identifies, communicates, and defends Jewish interests in the region on behalf of the American Jewish community.

NATIONAL COALITION SUPPORTING EURASIAN JEWRY

1120 20th Street NW, Suite 300N
Washington, D.C. 20036 USA
+1.202.898.2500 | www.ncsej.org

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS

2017

What We Do

Boston-Dnepropetrovsk Kehillah Project director Barbara Gaffin addresses the June Board of Governors meeting

ADVOCATE

U.S. Members of Congress and committees
U.S. Department of State
U.S. Helsinki Commission and OSCE
Diplomats from Eurasia
UN General Assembly
International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance
World Jewish Restitution Organization

REPORT

Weekly "In Brief"
Confidential regional reports for senior leadership
New country reports
Emergency bulletins

MONITOR

Newspapers, television, and social media
Conference calls with leaders from the region
Promote accurate reporting

President Aleksander Smukler with U.S. Ambassador to the Russian Federation Jon Huntsman in Moscow in October

Radio host John Batchelor with former chairmen Stephen Greenberg, Richard Stone, and Edward Robin at NCSEJ's June gala

SUPPORT JEWISH COMMUNITIES

NCSEJ special representative in Kyiv, Ukraine
Coordinate with local communities to facilitate social services
Work closely with international Jewish humanitarian organizations

MISSIONS TO THE REGION

Belarus Poland
Kazakhstan Slovenia
Latvia

FIGHT ANTI-SEMITISM

Investigate alleged incidents
Hold governments accountable
Ensure safety and security for Jewish communities

EDUCATE

Ambassador forums
Diplomatic roundtables
Briefings and seminars

DONATE

+1.202.898.2500

www.ncsej.org

NCSEJ

NATIONAL COALITION SUPPORTING EURASIAN JEWRY

1120 20th Street NW, Suite 300N
Washington, D.C. 20036 USA